Question 2

Imagine that you are the writer of the article. Before you leave the Ladakh area, you are interviewed on the radio about your recent travels.

Write the words of the interview.

In your interview you are asked the following three questions only:

- Could you tell us about your journey so far?
- What was most memorable about your visit to Ladakh?
- Who might enjoy going to Ladakh and why should they visit?

Base your interview responses on what you have read in Passage A, but do not copy from it. Be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points.

You should begin your interview with the first question: ‘Could you tell us about...?’

Write about 200 to 300 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.

[illegible]

Read carefully Passage B, *How to trek to Everest Base Camp, in the Reading Booklet Insert and then answer Question 3(a) and (b) on this Question Paper.

Question 3

Answer the questions in the order set.

(a) Notes

What advice does Passage B give to people planning to trek to Everest Base Camp?

Write your answers using short notes. Write one point per line.

You do not need to use your own words.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.

Advice given to people planning to trek to Everest Base Camp:

- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5
- 6
- 7
- 8
- 9
- 10

[10]

(b) Summary

Now use your notes from Question 3(a) to write a summary of what advice Passage B gives to people planning to trek to Everest Base Camp.

You must use continuous writing (not note form) and use your own words as far as possible.

Your summary should include all 10 of your points in Question 3(a) and must be 100 to 150 words.

Up to 5 marks are available for the quality of your writing.

This image shows a full page of a handwriting practice worksheet. It consists of approximately 20 horizontal rows. Each row is defined by two parallel dashed lines, creating a series of uniform gaps for letter height. The lines are evenly spaced across the entire page, providing a guide for consistent letter formation. There is no text or other markings on the page.
